

What to Include in the Mentoring Report

- Meeting dates and/or phone contact dates with summary of the discussion. It is recommended that there be a minimum of 9 contact hours annually.
- Significant events in the ministry of the mentee during the year.
- Continuing education events attended by the mentee.
- Mentee's spiritual formation/daily devotional activities.
- Vocational goals and progress of the mentee.

A Suggested Report Development Process (as suggested by GBHEM)

- The mentee writes a first draft of the report.
- The mentor reviews the report and makes amendments, if needed.
- If the report is amended, the mentor returns the report to the mentee without signature.
- If the mentee accepts report as amended, he or she signs report and returns it to mentor for signature.
- If the mentee disagrees with the report as amended, he or she makes further amendments and returns the report to the mentor for signature.
- If mentor agrees with mentee's amendments, mentor signs report.
- If the mentor disagrees with the mentee's amendments, he or she repeats the process with the mentee until an agreement is reached.
- Basic principle: Mentee signs off on the report last and submits report to appropriate persons.
