PRACTICING RESURRECTION:

The Gospel of Mark and Radical Discipleship

In Mark's day and now, Christians are caught in a world of crisis, confusion, uncertainty, and fear. There's a struggle going on and evil appears to be winning: injustice reigns, money and greed measure our living and our dying, divisions deepen and hope is sometimes hard to find. Then and now, part of the crisis is the church's complicity, complacency, and silence in a world where so much has gone wrong.

Join us at Olmsted this spring as we dive into the gospel of Mark. At Mini Mission u, you can enjoy the beautiful Olmsted retreat center and build close relationships while we grow in faith together.

Rev. Park is a UMC pastor, currently serving as the Butler PA District Superintendent. The son of a United Methodist pastor who also served as a DS, Eric grew up in three Western PA towns - Washington, Grove City, and Indiana. He says he learned to read with a Bible in one hand and a comic book in the other. He wrote his first song in ninth grade and has been doing his best to create music ever since.

The ministry of Eric and his wife Tara has touched many lives. In 1995, Eric was appointed an associate at Christ UMC in Bethel Park. He and Tara launched a popular Sunday evening contemporary worship with progressive rock band Ten-Point-Ten. Tara played keyboard and was vocalist. In 2005, she released her first solo CD, Things Unseen, with music and lyrics written by Eric. Since then, the couple has released two other CDs, mostly with original music.

Eric taught the Spiritual Growth study at Mission u 2019 at California University of PA. Check out his blog, A Gracious Graffiti, at <https://pewboy.net/>.
