To prepare for our guest speaker on April 3, World Vision has provided us with four titles to sell for $10 each. Purchase books March 6, March 13 and March 20 outside of our worship areas. Cash or checks made payable to Ingomar Church will be accepted.

The Hole In Our Gospel / Special Edition

Since 2009, The Hole in our Gospel has inspired thousands to actively demonstrate God's love for a hurting world. This special edition includes new stories from those who have taken action, links to inspirational videos, and a full-color appendix showing global need — and ways the church can respond today.

Unfinished

If you've ever wondered where you fit in the bigger story that God is writing, you're not alone. Unfinished invites you on a thought-provoking journey to rediscover your calling to live out the whole gospel — and find the meaning, purpose, and significance you long for.

He Walks Among Us

Discover the hope of Christ in broken places. Journey across the globe with this 90-day devotional and hear powerful stories of faith from people in some of the world's most impoverished regions.

God's Love For You Bible Storybook

Rich and Reneé Stearns help you introduce the children in your life to a bigger world with familiar Bible stories told in a fresh, new way and snapshots of how God cares for boys and girls around the globe. Help kids see God's love for children everywhere!

Plan to Respond

On April 3 you will have the opportunity to make a monthly pledge or one-time gift to bring help and hope to refugees around the world. Checks, debit or credit cards will be accepted. World Vision is providing a special book as a thank you to those who respond that day.

Where The Wind Leads by Vinh Chung with Tim Downs

Once a penniless refugee, now a successful doctor, Vinh Chung tells the miraculous story of his rescue by World Vision from the South China Sea and how he built a life for his family in the U.S. through perseverance and faith in God. Foreword by Rich Stearns.
